

Sacred Heart School Family Newsletter

December 6, 2018

Dear Families,

Thanks to Mrs. Spinello, Mrs. Buttemiller, Mrs. Hubbard, the third grade parents and all who worked so hard to make this past Saturday's Christmas Luncheon special. They are role models for all of us as they help to make Sacred Heart School a better place for the students. It was a GREAT DAY!

Saturday is the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception. It is a Holy Day of Obligation and the family should go to Mass. While we celebrate moms on Mother's Day in May, I can think of no better time to honor mothers than this day that Mary said yes to God.

Jesus said, "There is no greater vocation than motherhood." The unique bond of mother and child is formed at conception. This bond gave Mary, as it does all mothers, the strength to witness and support her child as He made His way through life.

The second week of Advent, starting on Sunday could not come at a better time. The second candle represents the PEACE that is to come through Jesus. As the days grow shorter and the time for holiday preparations increasingly become more hectic, we need peace. Use this Sunday as a reminder that Jesus is the reason for the season and welcome some peace into your holiday preparations. We will do our children a great benefit if we teach them through our actions to enjoy the holidays and not see them as a time of stress.

In Partnership,
Mr. Bruzzio
